RE: Schulte v. BOP et al., 20-cv-2795 (PGG) (GWG)

Dear Judge Gardephe:

Due to recent absurdities, it seems I will never be able to continue this case pro se. Without the laptop, work product, my disability writing by hand, and MOJ's recent ban of paper and ink (which is why this is written on blue dividers from my discovery), I simply cannot proceed. I ask the Court to assign pro bono counsel, particularly the counsel that is being assigned in my other cases — a professor at Fordham University here in New York and his students. See, e.g., Schulte v. United States et al., 21-cv-4042 (JMF) (SPN). Alternatively, I request assignment to any available pro bono counsel.

Respectfully Submitted,
Josh Schulte
